The facts inducing my action were as follows: Provisions had been stolen in November, 1883, and Henry's complcity therein was more than suspected. March 24, 1884, the party nearly perished from asphyxia. While several men were unconscious and efforts were being made for their restoration. Private Henry stole about two pounds of bacon from the mess stores. Not only was he seen by the Esquimau, Jans Edwards, but his stomach being overloaded he threw up the undigested bacon. An open investigation was held and every member of the party declared hiff guilty of this and other thefts. A clamor for his life was raised but was repressed ices indispensible.
